

Daura Hernández García is looking to fill in two positions to join her team for her next project "The Net (Working title)" awarded with the Tanja Liedtke Award 2023.

- Productions assistant
 - Selfemployer
 - German & English
 - Interest in dance and theater
 - Good and quick with communication
 - Desirable previous experience in production
 - Good in problem solving

Tasks: Communication with artists of the team, technology and cooperation partners, contract management, organization of rehearsals and performances, evening management of performances

- Choreography assistant
 - Selfemployer
 - German & English
 - Interest in dance and theater
 - Ideally Profesional Dancer
 - Based in Stuttgart

Tasks: documentation of rehearsals (written, film), help with set-up and dismantling during rehearsals, stand-in for various choreographic constellations, support during performances

Availability:

- May 2024
- First 2 weeks of June 2024
- October 2024

Exact dates will be send after the reception of your email.

More information about me and my artistic work:

www.daurahernandezgarcia.com

If you are interested or if you want more information on the project to apply, please, write an email to: moveinspace.daura@gmail.com

If we don't know each other please include a short description on who you are and your interest in the project.